Dear Sam:

Dan Stickler, Chris Hunter, and I really appreciate your help in preparing these cases for trial. The jury found that Kingwood was not responsible for taking any wells or causing any subsidence damage with limited exceptions. As you may know, we conceded a few cases at trial; and the damages awarded were around $200,000. Importantly, the jury did not find that the company was negligent. No compensatory damages or punitive damages were awarded. This was a victory. The great result was in large part due to your help and testimony.

Again, we really appreciate your help and look forward to working with you in the future.

Very truly yours,

Erin R. Stankewicz
